TRANSITION + FUN + MONEY TALK + ENERGY = MONEYCAMP!

MoneyCamp is an interactive program that infuses fun and energy into student transition and financial literacy by using games and activities. These engaging activities gets students up and moving while exploring money topics that fit their real-life stage!

It begins with our human-sized game called Road To College Success that prepares students for college living. With more fun tools like: “Let’s Do a Deal”, “Budget Mania” & “Busy Banking” we teach students how banks work, how to earn, save, give, balance a checkbook and do a personal budget. Pump up the energy with MoneyCamp at your site!

PART 1: Money Skills Games

Road To College Success (for older teens with a college focus)

Road To College Success (RTCS) is a human-sized board game used to prepare high school students and college freshmen for life in College. Players walk around the human-sized board registering for classes, managing money and discussing “risky” scenarios that could arise on a college campus. There is a tabletop version as well.

Budget Mania (for pre-teens to adults)

Budget Mania (BM) is a game that all about budgeting! It shows how algebra is integrated in everyday activities of shopping, balancing a checking account, banking, budgeting, investing, etc.

PART 2: Taking The Fear Out of Banking, Borrowing and Balancing a Checkbook

This segment gives an overview of banking, gaining income, saving and the use of cash, credit, checks and debit cards. Our “Let’s Do A Deal, If the Answer Is Right” game keeps the energy high. Checkbook balancing goes wild using “Busy Banking”. Students learn simple ways to make money in this economy and a savings plan for college.

PART 3: Interactive Budgeting

This segment begins with a Mail Call where students receive an envelope filled with bills and their paycheck. Their goal is to create a budget using a simple 5 step process. Can they do it? Of course they can!
